NewsBusters Celebrates 15 Years of Exposing and Correcting Liberal Media Bias

Leftist Media in Frenzy to Defeat Trump as Election Nears

The presidential election is a few days away, and the left-wing media are doing everything they can to destroy President Trump's chance at reelection. They want their candidate, Joe Biden, in the Oval Office.

The press was humiliated in 2016 when Trump won and they have tried desperately to remove him from office these last four years. Now is their most viable opportunity. They will say or report anything to take him out.

This media bias, an anti-Trump journalistic blitzkrieg, has been meticulously documented and exposed by the Media Research Center's divisions. These include NewsBusters, MRC Business, MRC Culture, Tech-Watch, MRCTV, and CNS News, as well as the social media pages of those divisions.

In addition, MRC experts are interviewed almost every day on radio, TV, or social media, such as Facebook Live.

The media attacks on Trump are relentless and revolting. Let's look at some examples.

When disbarred lawyer Michael Cohen, a convicted perjurer, released his anti-Trump book Disloyal, the leftist press feted him. On ABC's The View, for instance, when asked why he had worked for Trump for many years, Cohen incredulously claimed he had been "suffering" from "Stockholm Syndrome."

"I was a part of the cult, a big part of the cult, and there was really no wrong that he could do," said Cohen. "I'm not the only one that's suffering from what I really call Trump Derangement Syndrome, and 30% of this country is suffering from it."

Not the only media person pushing this ludicrous narrative, ABC's Sunny Hostin spouts, "We know that Trump is encouraging violence in America to just distract from his failures, right?"

The liberal hosts let Cohen get away with his absurd remarks.

On MSNBC's AM Joy, Sept. 13, disgraced ex-CBS anchor Dan Rather framed the upcoming election as a choice between racism and freedom. "What this presidential election is about is whether the country's going to move more in the direction of white supremacy, or whether it's going to move more in the direction of a multiracial, constitutional republic based on the principles of freedom and democracy," asserted Rather.

At The Washington Post, guest contributor Elizabeth Varon, a historian, compared Trump's labeling of protesters as "radical" with Southern racists smearing abolitionists. "Trump is echoing the attacks leveled by Southern enslavers against abolitionists," claimed Varon. "Abolitionists were physically harassed, threatened, mobbed, and in some instances murdered in waves of vigilante violence."

So, Antifa thugs are like the abolitionists and if you object to their violence, you are a racist. Got it?

On CNN's Newsroom, Sept. 12, former GOP strategist Rick Wilson railed that

Trump is a “personality cult now” and if Trump said “the black plague is awesome,” his supporters would “nod up and down.”

When Trump posted on social media that North Carolina voters should make sure their mailed-in ballot is counted, Twitter slapped a warning label on the post, claiming it violated “the Twitter rules about civic and election integrity.” Facebook also labeled the post, charging that “voting by mail has a long history of trustworthiness.”

In other words, left-wing Twitter and Facebook – elected by no one – know better than the president and will edit his tweets with commentary when they deem it necessary.

CNN’s Newsroom also resurrected the false “Russia collusion” narrative. On Sept. 6, host Dana Bash set up Rep. Adam Schiff (D-Calif.) to assert that Trump’s criticism of mail-in voting was designed to send a signal to Russia.

“I was asking intelligence agencies to look out for exactly this, the Russians amplifying the president’s false claims about vote by mail,” said Schiff. [The Russians] could cause Americans to distrust their own democracy, but they could also help Donald Trump and the Trump campaign.” Trump “wants the Russian help,” he added. (How long can you beat a dead horse?)

As for the violent protests and riots, instigated by Black Lives Matter and Antifa thugs, the leftist press is blaming ... Trump!

“We know that Trump is encouraging violence in America to just distract from his failures, right?”, railed Sunny Hostin on ABC’s The View. “Namely his failure in managing this horrible global pandemic that caused the death of 200,000 Americans on his watch.”

The Washington Post’s Philip Rucker lectured on MSNBC that Trump is “trying to scare women voters, white women voters in the suburbs ... to bring them back into the fold and make them fearful of what this [civil] unrest would mean going forward.”

MSNBC’s Joe Scarborough grotesquely asserts that when it came to COVID-19, President Trump “just wanted to sit by and watch [people] die.”

CNN’s Dana Bash agrees with Democrat Rep. Adam Schiff that the Russians are echoing Trump’s campaign themes to subvert U.S. democracy in the 2020 presidential race.

On ABC’s The View, convicted perjurer Michael Cohen rants that support for Trump is a “cult,” a syndrome, and “30% of this country is suffering from it.”

Disgraced ex-CBS anchor Dan Rather lectures on MSNBC that the 2020 presidential race is a choice between racism (Trump) and freedom (Biden).

Trump is also blame for the COVID-19 deaths, according to the left-wing media. On CNN’s New Day, host Alisyn Camerota brought on medical analyst Jonathan Reiner to explain why Trump is guilty of “negligent homicide” in the coronavirus deaths.

For its 9/11 anniversary issue, Time ran a cover nearly identical to its September 11, 2001 cover. It listed the names of COVID-19 victims with a large “200,000” on the cover. “How many more lives will be lost before the U.S. gets it right?”, asked Time.

CNN’s John Harwood played along, telling viewers on Sept. 11, “One thing to point out on the 19th anniversary of 9/11, we are right now in this pandemic, losing twice as many people every week as were lost on 9/11. We can’t forget that toll.”

MSNBC’s Joe Scarborough grotesquely asserted that Trump did not want to maintain calm and keep Americans from panicking over the virus, “no, he just wanted to sit by and watch them die.”

Trump is far more sinister, more evil than the 9/11 terrorists, according to the leftist press. Trump allowed a pandemic to snake through the nation and kill 200,000 Americans. He wanted it. Therefore, don’t vote for him; he must be stopped.

The liberal media are that hysterical, that maniacal. It’s unreal.

No matter what happens on Nov. 3, the MRC is documenting, exposing, and neutralizing left-wing media bias 24/7. You can help us in this battle by making a donation to our non-profit organization. Use the reply card and postage-paid envelope

BITS & PIECES

On the day President Trump was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize, Sept. 9, the network news shows did not report it.

Nobel Nomination?

President Donald Trump was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize on Sept. 9 for his work in helping Israel and the United Arab Emirates agree to full, mutual diplomatic recognition. However, neither NBC, CBS, nor ABC said a word about the nomination that day because they were too busy touting Bob Woodward's anti-Trump book, Rage. The network news shows devoted more than 16 minutes combined to Rage.

The CBS Evening News ran three segments over seven minutes on the book; ABC World News Tonight, over five minutes; and NBC Nightly News, more than four minutes. The nets boasted how the Woodward "revelations" were "threatening to upend his [Trump's] reelection campaign." Fox News did report on the Nobel nomination, noting that it stemmed from the Trump-brokered "historic peace deal between Israel and the United Arab Emirates."

The leftist press will not report positive news about the president precisely because they despise him and the election is near.

Sunny vs. Sunny — Suddenly, ABC's Sunny Hostin, who felt compelled to tell her national audience that President Trump is mentally unstable now feels it is "inappropriate to opine" about Joe Biden's mental fitness.

Twitter Bias

It's not surprising that left-wing Twitter used its "Twitter Moments" feature to promote the Democratic National Convention far more than the GOP convention. Twitter Moments is supposed to provide "the best of what's happening on Twitter in an instant," and it can drive news trends and influence many people. An MRC analysis showed that on Twitter Moments, 42.8% of the tweets were negative against the GOP while only 4.6% were negative against the Democrats during their respective conventions.

In addition, only 12% of the tweets promoted the RNC while 59% of the tweets promoted the DNC. Twitter essentially was at war with the Republicans. There were no Trump supporters whose tweets were featured. Also, 10 tweets from Democrat Joe Biden were featured in the Twitter Moments, but only two tweets from Trump were highlighted.

Twitter, like the leftist news networks, is doing what it can to promote Biden and trash President Trump as the election nears.

Hostin's Hypocrisy

Although ABC The View's Sunny Hostin was quick to label President Trump mentally unfit to hold office a few months back, she now says no one is qualified to question Joe Biden's cognitive health unless they are a physician. On Sept. 11, co-host Ana Navarro said, "Joe Biden's mental fitness — the man is coherent. He's not sending us out to inject bleach into ourselves." Hostin then said of Biden, "Well, you know, I'm not a physician, and so I think it's inappropriate to opine about mental fitness. It almost feels crass to me."

Yet on Dec. 18, 2019, Hostin claimed she was afraid because Trump's policies reflected an "unstable" mind. "I started thinking about the 25th amendment if I'm honest," Hostin said on The View. "I started thinking about his fitness to lead the country because it sounded — it sounded like the rantings of someone that was unstable."

With a contested General Election almost a certainty, your help to hold the media accountable is an absolute necessity.

The stakes are high. The Left and their overseers in the media are on a war footing, and they will stop at nothing to regain the White House. Expect the deceit, distortions, spin, censorship — and likely incitement of violence — to build to a crescendo on November 3.

But count on the MRC to hold the media and the Left accountable for their actions. The MRC will use all of our platforms, all of our resources, to analyze and cover every aspect of the Election 24/7, including disseminating truth from lies.

But we cannot do it without you. Our democracy hangs in the balance. The chaos, the intimidation, the assault on our nation's history and founding, all part of a far-left plan to “fundamentally change” America into a Socialist “utopia.” The truth must prevail.

ABC Censors

The morning after two Los Angeles police deputies were ambushed and shot in the head on Sept. 12, ABC's Good Morning America reported on the story but did not mention that Black Lives Matter protesters were trying to block the Emergency Room entrance at the hospital where the officers were being treated. The radical activists even chanted “death to police” and “we hope they die.” Yet, somehow, ABC forgot to mention this.

ABC's Zohreen Shah reported that the two deputies, a 31-year-old mother and a 24-year-old single man, were “still fighting for their lives” and “are in critical condition.” Neither Shah nor co-anchors Eva Pilgrim and Whit Johnson mentioned the activists even though the L.A. County Sheriff's office had tweeted about the protest problem and urged people to stop blocking the hospital.

BLM radicals chanting “death to police” does not fit ABC's liberal, compassionate narrative about police reform, so they censored it — bias by omission.

MRC President Brent Bozell Slams Censoring of President Trump on Twitter, 'Orwell Would Be Proud'

Both Facebook and Twitter censored a video clip of President Donald Trump speaking with Fox & Friends about the coronavirus and its effect on children, a Stalinist-like action that MRC President Brent Bozell criticized as “election manipulation,” and added, “Orwell would be proud.”

On Aug. 5, President Trump called into Fox & Friends and said “schools should open” because children are “almost” or “virtually” immune to the coronavirus. A clip of the segment was later posted to Trump’s personal Facebook page and to @TeamTrump, the official Twitter account for the Trump campaign, which the president retweeted from his personal account @realDonaldTrump.

Twitter and Facebook swiftly removed the clip that day, claiming that the content violated their policies on COVID-19 misinformation. “This video includes false claims that a group of people is immune” from coronavirus, the social media giants falsely asserted.

Trump actually had said, “My view is the schools should open. ... If you look at children, children are almost – and I would almost say, definitely – but almost immune from this disease. ... They are virtually immune from this problem.”

According to the CDC, children under the age of 18 account for 1% of coronavirus-related hospitalizations and less than 1% of coronavirus-related deaths. Also, more than 90% of children will exhibit no, or minor, symptoms.

In response to the censorship, Brent Bozell tweeted, “Facebook and Twitter need to stop this crap! They should both be investigated for election interference. To censor the president during an election year, no matter what he says, is leftist election manipulation. Orwell would be proud.”

Several weeks prior to censoring the coronavirus clip, Facebook had removed another video of Trump criticizing mail-in voting. The leftist social media and the Democrats support massive mail-in voting nationwide, which the president and Attorney General William P. Barr warn is subject to widespread fraud.

Clearly, Facebook and Twitter support the First Amendment only when it serves their and the Democrats’ interest.

Last month, the MRC Grassroots Army battled on two fronts: Big Tech and Little Twerkers

You called, you commented – you made a difference. In September, we asked our Grassroots Army, MRC’s “boots on the ground,” for help in the battle against online censorship and the exploitation of children.

mrcAction[™]
AMERICA'S MEDIA WATCHDOG

Big Tech/Big Brother: Facebook, Twitter, Google, YouTube and other social media companies censor conservative views with impunity, and they get away with it by hiding behind Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act, an archaic provision from the 1990s that gives the Silicon Valley lefties legal protections for their content.

ACTION: The MRC created a campaign to gather comments for posting to The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) public comment docket about Section 230. The MRC Grassroots Army posted more than 3,600 comments supporting the review of Section 230 – whereby more than half of the FCC’s comments were from MRC supporters within the first day of the campaign. With comment numbers and substance being taken into consideration at the FCC as part of their process, we’ll keep you posted on what comes of this issue.

Twerking Cuties: Netflix began streaming the French film Cuties, a provocative coming-of-age film about a dance crew of hypersexualized, twerking 11-year-olds.

ACTION: The MRC posted Netflix’s customer service line and THOUSANDS of the MRC’s Grassroots Army called to say “Cancel Cuties or I’ll cancel my subscription – Stop the enabling of pedophilia and exploitation of children.” As of this writing, research shows that Netflix is losing subscribers, its stock is slipping, and several members of Congress have called for an investigation of the streaming giant for “child pornography.”

Thank you for your support!

GOT TIPS?

The MRC has added more ammunition to our arsenal: CensorTrack (censortrack.org), a new program to archive, track and fight Big Tech censorship of conservative views online. Kayleigh McEnany @kayleighmcenany

There are SO MANY great WARRIORS for conservatism. Among them are MUST follows:

@newsbusters
@theMRC
@CurtisHouck
@bennyjohnson
@CalebJHull

White House Press Secretary Kayleigh McEnany names NewsBusters, the MRC, and NB Editor Curtis Houck as her top three "great WARRIORS" of conservatism.

On Fox's Outnumbered, Harris Faulkner showcased a NewsBusters post "Total Joke: CNN's Biden Town Hall Filled with Softballs Versus ABC's Ambush of Trump" on Sep. 18.

On Aug. 18, FoxNews.com featured an MRC TechWatch report detailing how Joe Biden received preferential treatment from tech giants. More than 260 conservatives had posts about Biden removed from social media platforms months prior to the DNC.

The video leading into Ivanka Trump's speech at the 2020 Republican National Convention highlighted a series of studies from NewsBusters.

NewsBusters Celebrates 15 Years of Exposing and Correcting Liberal Media Bias!

This year, on Aug. 9 to be precise, MRC's NewsBusters celebrated its 15th anniversary. Over the years, NewsBusters' unique and exemplary work of exposing and correcting liberal media bias has been praised by conservative leaders, such as Rush Limbaugh, who says "NewsBusters rocks!" and Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas), who says, "Thanks to the truth-tellers at NewsBusters, liberal journalists no longer have a stranglehold on information."

Within a month of its launching, NewsBusters was reporting on Kanye West blurting out "George Bush doesn't care about black people" during an NBC telethon for Hurricane Katrina relief. As time went on, NewsBusters (NB) scored some tremendous victories exposing the Left and their media allies. It was NewsBusters, for example, that debunked Hillary Clinton's 2008 claim to have arrived in Bosnia "under sniper fire" in 1996. Using a 12-year video clip pulled from

In 2012, NewsBusters caught one of the most esteemed liberal foreign affairs pundits, CNN host Fareed Zakaria, in a plagiarism scandal, for which he was subsequently suspended from CNN and Time magazine. There are many, many more success stories at NewsBusters.

A few weeks later, during the 2012 Republican convention, NewsBusters exposed Yahoo! News' Washington Bureau Chief David Chalian, caught on an open mic declaring that Mitt Romney and the evening anchor Brian Williams was caught repeatedly fabricating stories to make his reporting life sound more exciting, and NBC suspended him without pay for six months, and replaced him with Lester Holt.

the MRC archives, NB showed how Clinton's arrival was peaceful, as she and daughter Chelsea calmly greeted children. That blog was widely reported and seriously damaged Clinton's reputation in the midst of the 2008 presidential primaries.

GOP were "happy to have a party with black people drowning." After NewsBusters exposed Chalian, Yahoo! News promptly fired him. Naturally, he found a home on CNN.

In 2015, NewsBusters pushed hard on the outrage that then-NBC

In 2018, NewsBusters drew attention to The View co-host Joy Behar attacking Vice President Mike Pence as "mentally ill" if he thinks he hears God in prayer. After a nationwide MRC Action campaign contacting ABC sponsors about these offensive remarks, Behar publicly apologized on the show.

NB is very pleased in the past few months that President Trump has held up its study on "Twitter Moments" and the Mueller investigation, and that White House press secretary Kayleigh McEnany has cited NewsBusters research to rebut scandal-pushing reporters.
