

Leftist Media Spin and Censor News to Hide Biden's Illegal Immigrant Disaster at the Border

The U.S. border with Mexico is being overrun by illegal immigrants thanks to the radical, nearly open borders policy the Biden administration has embraced. In March 2021, Customs and Border Patrol apprehended 172,000 illegal aliens at the border. For comparison, under President Trump in March 2020 there were 34,460 apprehensions at the border.

The situation at the border is a disaster. But the truth is not being told because the left-wing media and social media, are doing all they can to censor news about the border and spin it to protect Biden.

The Media Research Center is documenting and exposing this leftist bias every day through its divisions, in particular NewsBusters, MRCTV, and CNS News, as well as through radio and television interviews of our experts.

Let's look at some of the deceit the leftist press are peddling.

During the Trump years, the media relentlessly attacked the president's border policy. They used words such as racist, cruel, dictatorial, Nazi, concentration camps, kids in cages. But with Biden and the massive surge of illegals across the border, the press are bending over backwards to not even label it a "crisis."

CNN's Lucy Kafanov told viewers, "There's no denying that this is an incredibly complex humanitarian issue that's, of course, made even more difficult by the fact that we're dealing with this in the midst of a pandemic."

It's not a "crisis," it's an "incredibly complex humanitarian issue."

MSNBC's Kasie Hunt claimed, "this is a problem that the Biden administration inherited from the Trump administration."

The Associated Press, in a memo to its reporters, said the "dire situation at the border" didn't "fit the classic definition of a crisis.... Therefore, we should avoid, or at least be highly cautious, about referring to the present situation as a crisis on our own, although we may quote others using that language." The bold type was in the original memo.

NBC Nightly News anchor Lester Holt described the "migrant surge" as an "early test for the new administration's immigration policies."

MSNBC's Jacob Soboroff laughably asserted that "it's just not logistically possible" to manage the very real border crisis "after four years of the cruelty of the Trump administration." He further said, "[A]nd I hear a lot of talk about, really disingenuous frankly, about a crisis, some kind of national security crisis at the border. That is not what is happening at all."

Soboroff also claimed that people were illegally entering the U.S. because of "climate change, climate variability."

CBS This Morning co-host Anthony Mason also took this tack. In an Apr. 8 segment on "why people make the dangerous journey to the U.S. in the first place," he introduced a report "from Guatemala on how climate change is forcing many into a difficult choice."

As for "national security" concerns, neither the broadcast networks nor the Latino networks mentioned in March that four people on the FBI's terror watch list had been caught at the border by CBP. Three of the people were from Yemen and one from Serbia.

We learned about this because FNC's White House correspondent Kristin Fisher and the online outlet Axios reported the story. ABC, CBS, NBC, Telemundo, and Univision censored it.

In the keep-blaming-Trump category, NBC's Chuck Todd – on his MSNBC MTP Daily show – tried to argue that Republicans had “sabotaged our immigration policy and this is why we're here.” This is “an impossible situation in some ways, because in many ways, the asylum process was essentially destroyed by [Trump official] Stephen Miller, they sort of blew it up, and so it is an extra mess,” he claimed.

Republicans are “almost rooting for a problem so they can walk away from it,” Todd added.

That's right, blame the GOP, or conservatives, when something goes wrong on a Democratic president's watch. That's how the leftist press operate.

MSNBC's Garrett Haake played the same game on Andrea Mitchell Reports. After stating that Republicans planned to “talk about what they say is a crisis at the border,” he then cited Democrats' claims that “those same draconian policies put in place by the Trump administration essentially created a time bomb here.”

On Mar. 29, ABC's Good Morning America reported – in a swift 14 seconds – an ABC News poll showing that 57% of Americans disapproved of President Biden's handling of the “situation with migrants” (not a crisis!)

at the border. NBC's Today gave it 12 seconds of coverage but CBS This Morning didn't mention it. (The poll also revealed that 57% disapproved of Biden's handling of gun violence. However, this was only mentioned in an online ABC story, not on-air.)

In another omission, ABC, NBC, and CBS did not tell Americans in late March that the Biden administration had ordered busloads of illegal aliens to be dumped in tiny border towns with no transportation and no support to the local government. Fox News' Peter Doocey reported the story and he also disclosed, “In larger cities, more than 1,800 migrants with criminal charges or convictions have been freed by judges, including 545 in Phoenix, 428 in Houston, and 195 in L.A.”

The nets are not reporting this information; they are protecting Biden. They are nothing more than mouth-pieces for the administration, which is left-wing and not interested in securing our borders. If the press do not tell the truth, or if they hide the truth, then we do not have a free country. The Republic cannot survive like this.

President Biden and Leftist Media Lie Incessantly About Georgia's New Election Law

Given the voting shenanigans and unconstitutional voting rules that were at play in some states in the 2020 elections, a few states, including Georgia, have made reforms and codified into law ways to make voting easier and more secure. They've also made it harder for people to cheat, which has sparked the leftist press, President Biden, and all their fellow-travelers to lie about Georgia's reforms and repeatedly scream "Jim Crow."

Their blatant lies even compelled Major League Baseball to relocate the All-Star Game from Atlanta (majority black city) to Denver (majority white city), a pathetic decision that is hurting myriad black businesses in the Peach State.

Let's look at some of the lies.

After Georgia passed its new law, which is nearly identical to the voting laws in blue-states New York, New Jersey, and Delaware, President Biden went on TV and said it was "Jim Crow on steroids, what they're doing in Georgia." Biden also lied about when the polls close in Georgia and whether people can get water while waiting in line (they can).

Even the liberal Washington Post "Fact-Checker" gave Biden four Pinocchios for his misrepresentations.

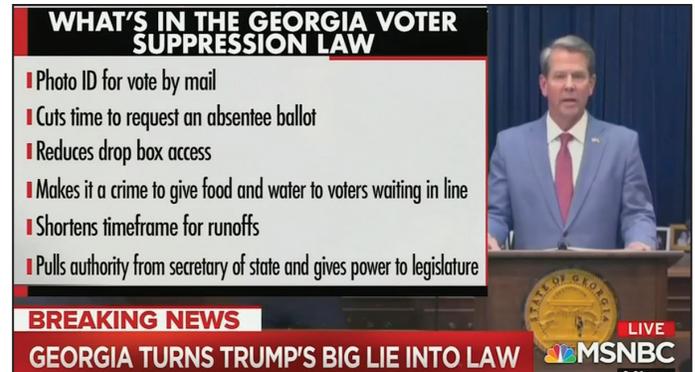

On CNN, host Don Lemon hysterically claimed, "There are more than 250 proposed bills and at least 43 states that are aimed at restricting access to the ballot. It is being called the new Jim Crow."

CNN even played old footage from the 1940s South, showing blacks and whites segregated. CNN's Joe Johns ominously warned, "The parallels with the [racist] past are inescapable."

CNN's Victor Blackwell ranted that Republicans were pushing a "pandemic of apartheid" with the Georgia law. "It's voter intimidation, it's voter criminalization," he railed.

MSNBC's Brian Williams, who lost his NBC Nightly News anchor gig for years of lying, told viewers the law was "voter suppression," while guest Mark McKinnon huffed, "[If] it walks like suppression and talks like suppression, it's suppression." Another guest, Baratunde Thurston, falsely claimed we are "watching voter suppression in real-time" and that Georgia is "a fascist state."

The left-wing New York Times lied: "The [Georgia] bill severely curtails the ability to vote in Georgia, particularly for people of color."

NBC Late Night host Seth Meyers lectured that "this is the most ferocious attack on democracy since the era of Jim Crow.... They're trying to steal the next election through voter suppression." On ABC's The View, Joy Behar

Meyers lectured, "This is the most ferocious attack on democracy since the era of Jim Crow .... They're trying to steal the next election through voter suppression."

"The [Georgia] bill severely curtails the ability to vote in Georgia, particularly for people of color."

falsely claimed, Republicans "have nothing to offer Americans," that's "why they have to suppress the vote."

These examples barely scratch the surface of the countless lies, falsehoods, and spin the leftist press are spewing about the Georgia law. Read more and watch the video clips at NewsBusters.org.

BITS & PIECES

On hidden-camera, CNN's Technical Director Charlie Tester discusses how the cable network painted President Trump as unhealthy, "neurologically damaged," but portrayed President Biden as very healthy. "Our focus was to get Trump out of office," he said.

CNN Busted

In an undercover investigation, Project Veritas video-recorded a CNN official admitting that the outlet pushed propaganda to make President Trump look ill and President Biden to look healthy. In the hidden-camera videos, released in April, CNN Technical Director Charlie Chester said when Trump's hand "was shaking.... We brought in so many medical people to all tell a story that, it was all speculation, that he was, neurologically damaged, that he was losing it. We were creating a story there that we didn't know anything about. I think that's propoganda, you know?"

As for Biden, "showing him jogging was obviously deflection, of his age, and they're trying to make it like, 'Oh, I'm healthy,'" said Chester. "Our focus was to get Trump out of office, right? Without saying it, that's what it was, right? So our next thing is going to be for climate change awareness. That's our next pandemic-like story that we'll beat to death.... Fear sells."

CNN, America's Pravda.

Climate Marketing

In an effort to try to make more people concerned about alleged man-made global warming, Scientific American and more than 400 other media outlets signed an initiative to re-label "Climate Change" to "Climate Emergency."

"We Are Living in a Climate Emergency, and We're Going to Say So," said the magazine in an April 12 commentary. "Given the circumstances, Scientific American has agreed with major news outlets worldwide to start using the term 'climate emergency' in its coverage of climate change."

"Why 'emergency'? Because words matter. To preserve a livable planet, humanity must take action immediately," the statement says. "The media's response to Covid-19 provides a useful model," the statement advises, noting how media were able to control the narrative and compel Americans to comply with safety mandates by referring to the pandemic as an "emergency." Some of the other media to join the campaign include Columbia Journalism Review, The Guardian, and Al Jazeera.

The Big White Lie

Justice Department statistics show that for anti-Asian crimes, blacks make up the largest percentage of offenders (27.5%). To deflect from this inconvenient truth, MSNBC's Jonathan Capehart hosted two leftists, A'Shanti F. Gholar and Linh Nguyen, to expose the real culprit. "The reality here is what is dividing our communities is white supremacy," Gholar absurdly claimed. "This is another tactic to not own up to the fact that white supremacy is the biggest threat not only to our communities but to our country."

Whites "just try to pit us against our own people in our community," she railed. "It is another tool and tactic of white supremacy." Nguyen agreed and ranted, "This is white supremacy ... a system that's meant to pit us against one another and to oppress us."

Got it? Blacks comprise the largest group of offenders against Asians and white supremacy is to blame.

Leftist media and A'Shanti Gholar claim whites "just try to pit us against our own people in our community."

Be Gay, Kids!

At the April 8 GLAAD Media Awards, the hugely influential 17-year-old dancer and “pansexual” JoJo Siwa presented the award for “Outstanding Children’s Programming,” and lectured to kids that “you can love whoever you want!”

The award went to “The Not-Too-Late Show with Elmo,” a Sesame Street spinoff. Siwa gushed, “I recently just came out as part of the LGBTQ community. I have the best, most amazing, wonderful girlfriend in the entire world ... and that’s all that matters.”

“I think it’s really cool that kids all around the world who look up to me can now see that loving who you want to love is totally awesome,” she explained. “You can be in love with whoever you want to be in love with.”

Siwa is a multimillionaire with myriad products targeted to young kids. She has 33 million Tik Tok followers and 12 million YouTube followers.

In her Gucci coat, JoJo Siwa awards “Elmo” with a GLAAD award and rejoices over the fact that, “Now even the littlest kids can see what inclusion looks like.”

MSNBC contributor Roland Martin smears conservative black Americans as “gutless black Republicans.”

MSNBC Condemns Black ‘Cowards’

Commenting on election reform laws at the state level, MSNBC contributor Roland Martin told the Velshi show that black conservatives who back the reforms are “gutless Republicans.” Martin whined, “I’m greatly disappointed in the actions of black people like Allen West, like Senator Tim Scott, like Alveda King — you run around talking about you’re the niece of Dr. King, but you say nothing. What’s even more egregious is that you have gutless black Republicans who know what they’re doing.”

He railed on, “What they’re doing is they’re embarrassing the elders, they’re embarrassing the ancestors, and they know what the Republican Party is doing, and they are cowards in that they’re not saying anything against this. It is a direct assault on black and Latino voters.”

Martin apparently forgot some of those “ancestors.” The first blacks elected to Congress between 1869 and 1933 were all Republicans, 47 of them. Democrats used Jim Crow and the KKK to keep blacks from voting.

Democrat Immigrants

Although Democrats want as many illegal aliens in the country as possible because, statistically, they will largely vote Democrat, CNN smeared Fox’s Tucker Carlson as “racist” for daring to discuss this. On CNN Tonight, April 9, host Don Lemon claimed Carlson was “facing calls to resign for pushing a racist theory that’s been a favorite of white supremacists for years, the replacement theory.” Contributor Kirsten Powers chimed in, “It’s extremely damaging. It’s very dehumanizing.... [It’s] a very degrading way to speak about people.”

CNN, predictably, said nothing in 2018 when black economist Walter Williams wrote that if the Democrat Party loses “20 to 25 percent of the black vote, it can kiss any hope of winning any presidential and many congressional elections goodbye. That’s why they support illegal immigration and voting rights for noncitizens. Immigrants from south of the border who are here illegally may be seen as either a replacement for or a guarantee against the disaster of losing the black vote.”

CNN labeled Fox’s Tucker Carlson as “racist” for exposing Democrats’ open border agenda.

MRC's Free Speech Alliance Issues Pledge to Lawmakers and Conservatives to Reject Big Tech Money — Political Toxic Waste

In its ongoing campaign to stop Big Tech (Twitter, Facebook, Google) from censoring conservatives on social media, the MRC's Free Speech Alliance sent a letter on April 13 to conservatives in Congress and across the country. The letter invited these friends and allies to pledge to reject any financial support from Big Tech and its surrogates. "Silicon Valley's money is toxic and it's poisoning our society," said Brent Bozell. "Conservatives must resist. We must act together to end Silicon Valley's corrupt grip over Washington and our public discourse." The letter and some of its 35 signatories are printed below.

Dear Conservative Leader,

Big Tech has gone too far, and its abuses are corrupting our government and elections. We members of the Free Speech Alliance call on every conservative leader and organization to reject any financial support from Big Tech or their surrogates. Including, but not limited to Google, Facebook, Twitter, Amazon, and Apple.

For the last several years, Silicon Valley has grown more powerful and they are abusing that power by censoring conservative thought, individuals, and organizations. Through their deliberate censorship, Big Tech prevented a president from communicating with his voters during an election. As a result of Big Tech's overt liberal agenda, they are censoring entire movements, like the right to life movement. Finally, they are actively censoring conservative leaders simply for voicing their beliefs.

Big Tech's power over our public dialogue is a threat to our American democracy. This must stop. This problem will not get better until conservatives draw a line in the sand and reject the toxic influence of Big Tech cash. Big Tech money is political toxic waste.

Therefore, starting today, we are launching a campaign urging individuals and organizations to publicly take the following pledge. It is our intention to maintain a public list of people and organizations that have signed the pledge.

As of this date going forward, I/we _____ pledge that I/we will not accept any financial support from Big Tech and its surrogates. Specifically, I/we will not accept any donations from, but not limited to, Google, Facebook, Twitter, Amazon, and Apple; or if I/we do accept donations from Big Tech, I/we will recuse myself/ourselves from the debate about online freedom altogether. If, from this date forward, I/we inadvertently accept any financial support from Big Tech companies, I/we pledge to return that support immediately and publicly. I/we make this pledge understanding that Big Tech is corrupt and poses an existential threat to our democracy. Immediate steps must be taken to ensure all people have online freedom and that elections are kept free from Big Tech's dangerous influence.
